Boy Scout Declaration of Religious Principle

The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing his/her obligation to God and, therefore, acknowledges the religious element in the training of the member, but it is absolutely non-sectarian in its attitude toward the religious training. Its policy is that the organization or institution with which the member is connected shall give definite attention to his/her religious life.

I agree with this Declaration of Principle ____Yes ____No Signature_____

Minimum age requirement: All Day Camp staff members must be at least 14 years of age. Den chiefs under age 14 may only attend day camp if they are serving as a den chief for the same Cub Scout / Webelos den that they serve in the local pack.

By signing this form, I certify that all of the information is true to the best of my knowledge and that I will meet the minimum age requirement by June 1 of the current camp year.
